last days of the World's Series last week.

We heard of a lot of unusual bets but we were intrigued by one made by an otherwise sound businessman, It was for 1000 to 1. Bob Vaught, the camera firm businessman was having his hair cut by Barber Bob York. "Til bet $20 to the haircut the Braves win," offered Vaught as the Yanks entered the closing inning leading 50. York shook him off ... Vaught tried again, "Til bet one thousand to one the Braves win." Vaught insisted. York snapped at it. The Braves won and York lost, but anything can happen in sports. The Yanks had three men on base at one time and that must have contributed to a heart failer to the odds-giver.

The bet was only for one penny to $10 but it was a bona (Continued on Page 8)

Youth Dies

In Campo Rd.

A flurry of auto accidents set in the day and sunday when an otherwise welcome rain obscured for the heart of the death of a Woodland, calif., youth, according to the California Highway Patrol.

The auto, driven by Noel Angualbus of Ontario, careened off Campo Road near Melody Lane Sunday at 6:30 pm. and struck a pole. Clyde Hughes, 25, 801 East Street, Woodland was pronounced dead on arrival at Grossmont Hospital. Angualbus was seriously injured.

They say the thing doesn't work half the time. "No wonder the company gave it away," one employe said.

One of the best-kept personal secrets of President Eisenhower is his golf score. Reporters covering the presidential games can only guess that it's in the mid-

But there's nothing hush-hush about Nixon's golfing. In fact, the other day the vice president competed with newsmen at a National Press Club tournament. He shot a 90. His handicap is 15, which put his score —75— along with the best of them.

with the best of them.
Our neighbor in Bethesda, the pro at Congressional Country Club where Nixon plays, tells this one on the vice president:
Several of the club's oldtimers sat down for lunch at their tables bare of coverings. They noticed one of the tables was set with a clean white cloth. "Well," huffed one of them, "who's the blankety-lank senders who gets THAT. plank so-and-so who gets THAT

C., living just a short distance from the Library of Congress. They have no children.

The Library of Congress was established in 1800 for the use of Congress. It was originally housed in a room in the White House. In 1814 and again in 1851 fire almost totally destroyed its contents. The library was moved to the Library of Congress Building in 1897. Since that time its collection of books, newspapers, films, legal books, etc., has grown by leaps and bounds.

Mrs. Borski said the library now presents lectures and concerts in one room, for the benefit of the public. The Library of Congress also issues copyrights for books, music and other original manuscripts.

Awards For S. D. Area

The big increase in student enrollment in the high schools of Southern California has caused Bank of America to make important changes in its statewide Achievement Awards program for high school seniors this year.

Jesse W. Tapp, chairman of the bank's board of directors, this week announced a whole new division for the Southland competitions, and $9,300 in additional cash awards. This brings the total for the three geographical divisions of Southern California, this makes the statewide cash total $54,200.

In the Southland, additional awards of 700 gold trophies and MICHAEL'S

Cases of this new import from Asia were relatively few in the summer months, but we can expect them to increase in fall and winter. Whether or not Asian flu will be as rampant in this country as in the Far East we can't yet tell, but it's possible that 15 to 20 percent of us will be hit.

The disease itself can be expected to be rather mild — so there's no occasion for hysteria. However, the effect on any community, of large numbers are sick at one time even for a few days, can be serious. Fortunately, vaccine will be available at least for those in essential occupations such as medical, fire police, but there may not be enough for everybody.

Prayer Answer For Peace Say J.W.

Fifteen hundred San Diego residents including the entire congregation of Jehovah's Wit-nesses from the Lemon Grove, Spring Valley-La Mesa area have returned from El Centro after having attended a three day con-vention sponsored by the Watch-tower Society of New York.

Highlighting the program was the discourse by B. E. Giffin, of New York, on the subject "What Are The Prospects For Lasting Giffin pointed out that "men have ben able to do almost every imagineable feat, yet the thing that is most desired by men in general, they have not been able war, prayer, talks, leagues, treaties, have failed. Although man's efforts fail, God can and will bring permanent peace to earth in our generation" Giffin said, "but it must come in God's way, not man's.

From Lemon Grove went William "Bill" Rife, past master and present secretary of Lemon Grove Lodge; Henry Jensen, 2579 Bonita, Worshipful Master of the Lodge; F. L. Patterson, 9730 Laerth in Street and Lionel A. Thorogad, way, not man's.

"This will be through God's ly established kingdom" stressed Giffin "Prospects for permanent Ju in our lifetime are certain, uded the speaker.

Aboard U.S.S. Midway
BREMERTON. Wash., (Special)—David Zastoupil, seaman apprentice, USN., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Zastoupil of 8401 Roy St., Lemon Grove, serving aboard the attack carrier USS Midway, took part in the ceremonies held at the Puget Sound Naval Shipyard, Bremerton recently, when the Midway was re-commissioned after spending a two-year conversion period in the yards.

Featuring a new angled flight deck, a hurricane bow, steam catapults and extensive internal improvements, the CVA-41 has been put on a fighting par with the super Forrestal-class carriers.

Crewmembers of the carrier now enjoy the luxuries of flourescent lighting, air-conditioning, and individual reading lamps on their bunks. Often called a "floating city", a carrier has its own barber shops, post office, cobbler shop, laundry, library, general stores, and drug stores.

After her first sea trials, the Midway is scheduled to, move to Alameda, Calif., for the holiday season.

WHO'S WHO in San Diego County?

Mr. Seymour Progress

You see more progress in San Diego County these days because of this gentleman and other members of underwriting groups organized this gentleman and other members of underwriting groups organized by Bank of America. These groups purchase San Diego County school and municipal bonds, providing more classrooms for our youngsters, new hospitals, libraries and other needed public facilities. During the last five years alone more than $32,500,000 in San Diego County bond issues have been purchased by such Bank of America groups. This is another very important role local Bank of America branches play in the building of San Diego County. We're statewide, sure ... but local, too!
